OUT-DOOR FETE.

It will be the Grandest Affair Ever Given in This Locality.

In nearly all the churches in the four townships of Bloomfield, Montclair, Verona, and Caldwell the ladies are actively engaged in preparing for the grand fete to take place at Ashland Hall, Montclair, on the 15th and 16th inst., for the benefit of the building fund of the Mountside Hospital. The fete will undoubtedly be the most elaborate demonstration ever witnessed in this locality. A vast army of workers are earnestly engaged in devoting their energies toward the success of the enterprise.

Ashland Hall, with its magnificent grounds, is situated on the southern side of Bloomfield Avenue, in Montclair, nearly opposite the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Depot. The interior of the hall will be handsomely decorated with bunting, flags, flowers, and candelabra, while the grounds will be brilliantly illuminated with calcium lights, Japanese lanterns, and locomotive headlights loaned by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railway Company. The Montclair Brass Band will furnish music. A bugle reveille will announce the opening of the fete and a bugle blast will note the hours until eleven o'clock, when the fete closes for the evening.

Visitors to the fete will find much to interest them. Handsome booths will be fitted up throughout the grounds. A "Punch and Judy" show, loaned by Marshall & Ball, clothiers, will amuse the children. A large assortment of useful and fancy articles will be on sale, and refreshments of various kinds may be had in abundance.

The allotment of the booths is as follows: First Presbyterian Church of Bloomfield, soda-water fountain; West-sterian Presbyterian Church, Bloomfield, cakes and Russian tea (the ladies of this church will also conduct a lamp stand); Montclair Congregational Church, ice-cream; St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Montclair, strawberries; Park M. E. Church, Bloomfield, cakes; St. James Episcopal Church of Montclair, coffee and chocolate; First Presbyterian Church of Montclair, pound-cake table; Church of the Sacred Heart, Bloomfield, perfumes and drugs; German Presbyterian Church, Bloomfield, fish pond; Christ Episcopal Church, Bloomfield, games and athletic goods; St. Mark's Episcopal Society of Glen Ridge, country store; First Baptist Church, Bloomfield, fruit and nuts (the ladies of this church will also have a photograph to amuse their customers); Glen Ridge Congregational Church, candy booth; Grace Presbyterian Church, Montclair, lemonade; Congregational Church of Upper Montclair, fancy booth. The Caldwell and Verona Churches will not conduct booths but will defray the expense of lighting the grounds. The Montclair Methodist Church will make a contribution of money instead of a booth, and the ladies of the Watessing M. E. Church have a fair on their hands in their own church at the time, but will contribute cakes. The young ladies' societies of the Montclair Congregational Church will have charge of the books and stationery booth; the King's Daughters' Society of the Upper Montclair, Glen Ridge, and Bloomfield churches will conduct a Friday table; the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will conduct a common-sense table and have charge of the "Punch and Judy" show; the Union Baptist Church (colored) of Montclair will give a cake walk in the Opera-house on the evening of the 14th, the proceeds of which will go to the hospital fund. On the evening of the 17th St. Mark's Methodist Church (colored) will give a concert for the same purpose.

The Hospital Souvenir Book, which is being gotten up in artistic style, contains four illustrations, giving views of the hospital. Mrs. A. S. Badgely and Mrs. Wallace will preside at the table where the souvenir book will be on sale at a small charge. These two ladies have solicited most of the advertising which will appear in the book.

If the weather should prove stormy the fete will be postponed.

Commencement at the Seminary.
Commencement exercises of the German Theological Seminary will be held next Wednesday evening in the Westminster Presbyterian Church. Five students will graduate, one of them a long resident of Bloomfield: Remi Justus Buttinghausen, Philadelphia; John Henry Jensen, Bloomfield; August Lange, Elfsen, Germany; Matthew Muller, Brooklyn; Albert Karl Stalger, Philadelphia. Each one of the graduates has been assigned to churches at the following places: R. J. Buttinghausen at Camden, J. H. Jensen at Flatbush, August Lange at Carlstadt, Matthew Muller at Jersey City and A. K. Stalger at Atlantic City.

That Tired Feeling
Is often the forerunner of serious illness, which may be broken up if a good tonic like Hood's Sarsaparilla is taken in season. This medicine invigorates the kidneys and liver, removes the waste from the system, purifies the blood and builds up the strength.

Constipation is caused by loss of the peristaltic action of the bowels. Hood's Pills restore this action and invigorate the liver.—Advt.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

[From Our Regular Correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, June 6.

A sensation is no name for the furore created here by the resignation of Secretary Blaine, and it is raging to-day with the same intensity with which it started. It was not, of course, entirely unexpected, owing to the persistency of at least two members of the Cabinet—Secretary Foster and Attorney-General Miller—in publicly sneering at Mr. Blaine's accomplishments for this administration. Mr. Blaine is too high-strung a man to stand such treatment without protesting, and his resignation is a protest with a vengeance; for if it shall make him the nominee of his party it will keep Mr. Harrison out of what he might have had if his friends had been more tactful.

It is believed that had Mr. Blaine been properly treated by the friends of Mr. Harrison he intended at the proper time to have positively forbidden the use of his name as a candidate and to have thrown his influence to the President, which would certainly have resulted in Mr. Harrison's nomination; but when Messrs. Foster, Miller, and the small fry of the kitchen Cabinet began to cast slurs in public interviews upon Mr. Blaine and his work, and to boast of Mr. Harrison's ability to "down" Mr. Blaine in a stand-up fight before the Convention, as they did a few days ago, they aroused the fighting blood of one of the hardest political fighters this country has produced, and the result will be history; but the indications now are that it will be a chapter which would have been omitted had the President's "foresight" been equal to his hindsight, as the saying is. It is but another case to be added to many gone before in which the fool-friendships of public men have by injudicious utterances spoiled bright prospects. Mr. Harrison recognizes the mistake that his friends made and has ordered the abuse of Mr. Blaine stopped. This order will probably help the Republican party, but Mr. Harrison's own chances are considered beyond help.

President Harrison says that when the names of the United States delegates to the proposed International Monetary Conference are announced all fair-minded people will be convinced that the strongest possible effort is to be made to secure an international agreement upon an agreed ratio and the opening of the mints of the world to the coinage of silver as freely as is now accorded to gold. The free-coinage men in Congress, while not disposed to criticize the President's fair talk on the subject, are fully determined that nothing but a lack of votes, and that they do not anticipate, shall prevent the passage of the Stewart Free Coinage Bill now under consideration in the Senate. No time has been set for taking a vote upon the bill, but Senator Morgan, one of its staunchest advocates, has given notice that he will endeavor to press it to a vote between the 14th and 21st of this month. If he succeeds, and the chances are decidedly against him on account of the meeting of the Democratic National Convention on the 21st of this month, and the desire of Democratic Senators to attend, the bill will then go to the House, where the fight against it will be so bitter that nothing short of the much-talked-of cloture rule will insure its passage, and no man is in a position to say positively that such a rule will or will not be reported from the Committee on Rules.

The investigation of the Census Bureau has brought out one thing that was very well known here before it ever began. That is, that some of the chiefs of division made favorites of the youngest and prettiest girls under them. The same state of affairs will be found in any other government office, where women in large numbers are employed, that should be investigated, and if Congress can suggest a real preventive for this sort of thing, it will make a display of wisdom far beyond public expectation.

The Canadian Government has two Cabinet officers—Hon. George Foster, Minister of Finance, and Hon. McKenzie Bowell, Minister of Militia—here conferring with the State Department in the interest of Canadian shipowners, who are alarmed at the threat of the United States to retaliate for the discrimination in charges made against American vessels passing through the Welland Canal. It is not known what proposition the eminent Canadians have submitted, but it can be stated for an absolute certainty that no proposition short of putting American vessels on the same footing as Canadian vessels, so far as charges are concerned, will be accepted as satisfactory.

The House has passed the Post-office Appropriation Bill, after voting down numerous cuts proposed by Mr. Holman as amendments thereto.

A Common Mistake.

DANGER OF DELAY.

It is remarkable how many people there are who have that Tired Feeling who seem to think it is of no importance or that nothing need be done for it. They would not be so careless if they realized how really serious the malady is. But they think or say, "It will go off after a while." We do not mean the legitimate weariness which all experience after a hard day's work, but that all-gone, worn-out feeling which is especially overpowering in the morning, when the body should be refreshed and ready for work.

IT IS A MISTAKE.

to allow this condition to continue, as the body may soon become debilitated beyond recovery, or some serious disease may gain a tenacious foothold. The craving of the system for assistance should be gratified by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great building-up medicine. It purifies and restores the blood, regulates the digestion, and really does "Make the Weak Strong."

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA CURES WHERE OTHERS FAIL.

"For six years I have been troubled with general debility; six months ago I became very much run down, could not do my work, and part of the time was confined to the house. Last June I was told that Hood's Sarsaparilla was just what I needed. I had lost confidence, but as—grasps at a straw, I decided to try this medicine, and to my great surprise, from the first day I began to improve. By the time I had finished my second bottle I had regained my health and strength, and from that day I have been PERFECTLY WELL.

I have recommended Hood's Sarsaparilla to my friends, whom I know have been benefited by it. It is indeed peculiar to itself, in that unlike most all other preparations it does not only help but it cures." E. C. FIDOCK, 49 Bellevue Street, Lambertville, N. J.—Advt.

Orphan Children's Picnic.

The annual picnic tendered to the children of the Newark Orphan Asylum by the Women's Auxiliary of this town took place on Wednesday at Pleasure Grove, Fairview. The boys and girls to the number of eighty-four, and the matron and several assistants, were brought to the grove by one of the Morris Canal Company's barges. They were received by a number of Bloomfield ladies, and at once proceeded to enjoy themselves playing games and gathering wild flowers. Luncheon and ice-cream were served to the little ones, who in their turn entertained the spectators with some of their songs and exercises. The Lightfoot Drum Corps arrived in the afternoon and delighted the children with their music. While the lively little ones had a merry time, the chilling wind and threatening weather made it rather unpleasant for the spectators, and doubtless kept many away from the grove. The rain in the afternoon brought the picnic to an earlier termination than usual. Officer James Foster was on duty at the grove to keep order among the unruly outside boys who gathered at the grove.

The Bloomfield picnic is a red-letter day among the asylum children. They invariably have a happy time when brought here, and are well cared for by the many kind-hearted ladies who compose the Auxiliary.

The picnic on Wednesday revived in the minds of many pleasant recollections of the much-lamented Rev. Robert S. Carlin, who was present last year and entered with so much zest into the sport of the little ones, and won such a large share of their affection.

Happy Hoosiers.

Wm. Timmons, Postmaster of Idaville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: "Find Electric Bitters to be the best Kidney and Liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new lease on life.
